

Page One Media Grant Application – Publisher Affidavit

Instructions:

This form is to be filled out by a representative from your publishing house. That can be your editor, marketer, publicist or the publisher. Anyone who will have access to the works-in-progress report and can attest to the publication date and format of the book.

Please rename this document in the following format:

Author first and last name – Publisher or Imprint name – Publisher Affidavit

Example: Dawn Smith – Whomever Press – Publisher Affidavit

In order to be considered for the 2027 Page One Media book publicity grant, a representative from your publisher must affirm the following information:

- This book is for adults (young adults, middle grade, children's and picture books do not qualify for this grant)
- This book is not publishing as a reprint or anniversary edition
- This book is being published by a US-based author
- This book is being published by a US-based publisher* and is being published in the United States
- This book is scheduled to publish sometime between January 1 and December 31, 2027* and to the best of the publisher's ability they will make every effort to publish in the 2027 calendar year
- This book is not self-published or published by a hybrid press

Book Title:

Author:

Publishing House:

Publisher's book web page (if it exists):

Publication date:

Galley due date:

We understand that publication dates can slip, but if this book is selected for the grant and the book doesn't publish in 2027 you will forfeit any right to the grant. You can reapply for 2028 or later. Having been chosen for the grant in 2027 does not guarantee that the book will be chosen again in subsequent years.*

Publisher representative (print name)

Signature of Publisher Representative

Date